Landmark Center/Thursday, Oct. 2/Departs 11am
FREE Courtroom Concert: Charles Gorczynski Tango Quartet performs the music of iconic tango bandoneonist Astor Piazzolla, as well as their own cutting-edge contemporary tango music. The quartet is known for visceral live performances and original music that crosses modern tango, chamber music, new classical. This is concert only.

Macy’s/Tuesday, Oct. 7/Departs 9:45am
JRC Watch Repair in Macy's. They perform routine services, such as battery installation, watchband sales and adjustments while you shop. Pricing will vary depending on what you need serviced.

Lunch & More/Tuesday, Oct. 7/Departs 11am
Aki’s BreadHaus and Wunder Bar. A bakery based on the traditions of Germany providing amazing artisan breads, pastries & pretzels. Lunch is available: homemade soup and bread, quiche, or savory rolls. The owners plan to visit with us and will open the Wunder Bar early for our event for wine sales.

Shopping & Lunch/Friday, Oct. 24/Departs 9:30am
Our excursion will start out at Käthe-Wohlfahrt of America. This shop is a charming retail destination located in the historic town of Stillwater, specializing in traditional German holiday decor and gifts. We will then have lunch at Gasthaus Bavarian Hunter, a lodge-like restaurant in a pine forest. They offer classic German fare & imported beers.

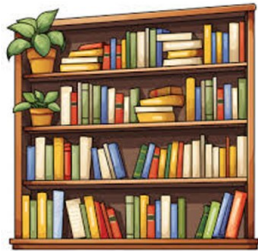

Men’s Breakfast/Tuesday, Oct. 28/Departs 9am
RJ Riches. A favorite place for the men. An old-fashioned joint dishing out massive portions of American classics.

Women’s Breakfast/Tuesday, Oct. 28/Departs 9:45am
Keys Café. Keys is a family-run restaurant built on simple values—fresh food, hard work, and strong relationships. Barbara Hunn, who once dreamed of becoming a pop singer, instead found her stage in the kitchen. She opened the first Keys Cafe in St. Paul.

MN Orchestra/Thursday, Oct. 30/Departs 10am
David Afkham, Conductor, returns along with the MN Orchestra with special guest Janice Carissa on the Piano . $30 tickets and $5 gas fee.

READING ROOM NEWS

The Reading Room Committee has established the following policies for the Reading Room.

Please abide by these rules:

- Respect those reading and ‘chat’ outside the room.
- Books are available to RESIDENTS and STAFF ONLY. They are to be read and returned; please do not loan to family or friends.
- Magazines can be taken to your apartment. We do not need magazines returned. WE NEED MORE NEW MAGAZINE DONATIONS!
- Newspapers are to REMAIN IN THE READING ROOM until 10pm EVERY DAY so all residents have an opportunity to read them.

Please do not take newspapers out of the reading room. Thank You!

Jill Marcoe, from HearingLife, will be here on Thursday, Oct. 16 from 10am to 1pm. There will be a sign up sheet to get a 30 minute hearing loss test. Jill will make recommendations for better hearing for you along with Medicaid coverage options if needed. This is not a cleaning or battery sale visit.
