Lunch and Step On Tour/Thursday, Nov. 6/Departs 12:30 pm (tour is up to 2 hours)
Lunch at Josephs Bar and Grill in St. Paul followed by Gangsterland Bus Tour of St. Paul - See the same St. Paul streets frequented by famous gangsters of the 1930's! Learn why the likes of John Dillinger, Baby Face Nelson, Alvin "Creepy" Karpis, the Barker brothers and many others loved to party in St. Paul. Find out why Minnesota was so important to Prohibition and the bootlegging industry. Just what the heck is a Yeggman?! See where John Dillinger had a shootout with the FBI, where the Karpis-Barker gang kidnapped brewery owner William Hamm in 1933 and banker Ed Bremer in 1934, the home of Edna "The Kissing Bandit" Murray. Find out why infamous mobster "Bugsy" Siegel visited St. Paul in an attempt to bribe Minnesota's governor and much more! Along the way you will also learn a lot of history about St. Paul while enjoying beautiful sights such as Rice Park, Summit Ave Historic preservation district (the longest stretch of preserved Victorian homes in the country), the State Capital, the iconic St. Paul Cathedral and more.

Lunch/Tuesday, Nov. 18/Departs 11am
In keeping with our gangster theme, for nearly a century, DeGidio's Restaurant & Bar has been a beloved fixture in the St. Paul community. Their story begins in 1933, when Joe "Kid Bullets" DeGidio, a successful bootlegger during the prohibition era, opened DeGidio's Royal Bar at its current location as prohibition came to an end. During Saint Paul's infamous gangster era, DeGidio's became a favorite haunt of notorious mob figures, earning a unique place in the city's colorful history.

Men's Breakfast/Tuesday, Nov. 25/Departs 9am
Manning's. Manning's is much more than a good place to eat and drink, it's a Southeast Como constant, its wood-paneled interior dating back to 1957 – and old-fashioned cherry-red booths full of fond memories.

Women's Breakfast/Tuesday, Nov. 25/Departs 9:45am
Colossal Café. Come and get your Colossal fix on Grand and Hamline!

FOR YOUR ENJOYMENT in Solarium at 2pm
