Reading Room News

This is the season of color – not just in nature. All over the world, people are on the move. What have we got in the Reading Room to broaden your horizons and add ‘color’ to your reading choices? Let’s start with Biography/Memoir... In North of Ordinary, Sue Aikens shares life in her remote outpost 200 miles north of the Arctic Circle. For sixteen years, Angela Merkel was Chancellor of Germany. In her memoir, Freedom, she recalls two German states—East and West. A Dream Deferred: Jesse Jackson and the Fight for Black Political Power by Abby Phillip focuses on his presidential runs in 1984 and 1988. Taylor Brorby’s Boys and Oil is a bracingly honest memoir about growing up gay in rural North Dakota. Dawn Staley’s story of being an Olympic gold medalist, WNBA All-Star, and the first woman of color to head women’s basketball at the University of South Carolina is shared in Uncommon Favor. Enjoy the colors of summer!!
